Guidelines for Free Speech
Activities

Based on San Diego Community
College District's Policy 3925
Approved March 9, 2004

San Diego Continuing Education is a non-public forum, except for designated free speech areas. Free speech areas have been designated on campus to maximize the opportunity for free discussion and expression, while minimizing the potential for disruption of classroom and college activities and interference with the ability of the students to obtain an education.

Designated Free Speech Areas:

- San Diego Continuing Education has designated areas for a variety of free speech activities, e.g., speeches/presentations, rallies, distribution of literature, posting, and voter registration. If you have any questions or need clarification, contact the Dean of the campus.
- Restrictions shall not be placed on subject matter, topics or viewpoints expressed in designated free speech areas.
- For designated free speech areas contact the Office of the Dean at the locations listed on the back of this brochure.

- All visitors are encouraged to check in with the Office of the Dean to advise campus officials of the presence of visitors on campus.

Posting:

- Kiosks and/or bulletin boards have been designated on campus for general posting.
- Posting of materials, other than that of Continuing Education affiliated groups, will not be permitted in other than designated areas.
- All materials must concern lawful activities and not be misleading.
- All commercial literature must have the organization/institution affiliation, along with address and telephone number clearly stated.
- All materials posted on designated “free speech” bulletin boards or kiosks will be automatically removed once a week.
- San Diego Continuing Education does not endorse, approve, authorize, sponsor or regulate any commercial business, commodity, service or entertainment posted or distributed on campus.

Distribution of Literature:

- Petitions, circulars, leaflets, newspapers and printed materials may be distributed in person in designated free speech areas.
- No person or organization distributing materials in free speech areas shall coerce any person into taking any material.

- Newspapers, leaflets, and other printed materials may be left for distribution on campus in designated areas only. Check with the campus Dean’s Office.
- All discarded material in and around free speech areas must be retrieved by persons distributing the material prior to departure.

Support Services:

- Tables, chairs, sound system and other support materials will not be provided by the campus.
- Parking permits will not be provided.

Vending on Campus:

- Vending activities are limited to campus sponsored and approved special events related to the educational mission of the campus and must have prior approval of the campus Dean.

Voter Registration:

- Voter registration in other than free speech areas must be scheduled in advance (48 hours recommended).
- See the Campus Dean at the locations listed on the back of this brochure.
