DATE OF OCCURRENCE: September 1, 2012

LOCATION: Miramar College-CONSTRUCTION AREA

On 09-01-12, College Police attempted to contact a male, later identified as Ahmed BULLOCK, leaving the construction area of the new cafeteria/bookstore at Miramar College carrying a bag of copper pipes. Upon seeing the officers, BULLOCK fled the area. College Police and the San Diego Police Department established a perimeter around the area, but BULLOCK was not located.

A subsequent search of the area located BULLOCK’s vehicle parked in Lot #2 at Miramar College. Inside of the vehicle was a large spool of elevator cable (approx. 50-60lbs) and another bag containing copper wire.

College Police conducted a follow-up at BULLOCK’s last known residence but did not locate BULLOCK.

The vehicle was impounded and held for evidence, along with the recovered property. A Warrant of Arrest has been requested for BULLOCK.

If anyone has any other information regarding this incident, please contact College Police Dispatch at 619-388-6405.
