CRIME PREVENTION ALERT

February 27, 2012

As reported in U-T SAN DIEGO and by the San Diego State University Police Department, a sexual assault occurred near San Diego State University.

CASE DETAILS

Police are investigating a reported sexual assault that occurred during a party near the San Diego State University campus early Sunday. The victim was talking to three men at a party in a house near the intersection of 63rd Street and Montezuma Road between midnight and 1 a.m., according to SDSU police, who are investigating the case with San Diego city police. The suspects asked the victim to accompany them outside to continue the conversation and when she did, the victim was forced into the back of a car, police said. According to police, the suspects drove to an unspecified location, where two of the three suspects sexually assaulted the victim. After the attack, the victim was returned to the party. Two of the suspects were described by authorities as black men of college age and each was about 5' 10" weighing around 160 pounds, had fit builds and both were wearing white T-shirts and short pants. The third suspect was described as a black male and no further description was given.

Investigators are requesting that anyone with information about the incident contact the SDSU police department at (619) 594-1991 or email information to police.mail@sdsu.edu.
